Embla - a girl in the middle of universe

(3,5 – 8 år)

A shadow play about childrens fascination of the universe.

Dramatization: Fabrizio Montecchi and Majken Pollack

Direction and set design: Fabrizio Montecchi

Shadow play puppets: Nicoletta Garioni after illustrations by Sara Lundberg

Music: Leif Hultquist

Puppeteers: Sophia Segrell/Lisa Kjellgren

One night, the fascinating greatness of universe makes Embla feel tiny. With the help of her mother, Embla tries to find answers to great and tricky questions. Come join Embla on a colorful journey into a mystical universe of stars, planets as well as everyday events!

The master of shadow play Fabrizio Montecchi has once again returned to Tittut! This time with a play based on the books about Embla created by the author Majken Pollack and the award winning illustrator Sara Lundberg.

"Fabrizio Montecchis colorful shadow play and Leif Hultquists spherical space music interact in a contemplative, visual and wondrous journey into universe ..."

Svenska Dagbladet

"The shadow play with its many levels represents a fine staging form for the story of Embla and her existential thoughts. The fact that it is done with such delicacy and depth deserves a round of applause."

Expressen

We also offer workshops in shadow play.
