Nasse is really looking for wild raspberries but instead he finds something he has never seen before. Strange! Thinking many thoughts, curious Nasse is trying to understand the world around him. Composer Leif Hultqvist and director Sophia Segrell present a great little musical, in which emotions big and small are dealt with. TITTUT also welcomes new team member puppetmaker and set designer Amanda Cederqvist.

"This is absolutely wonderful, charming and swinging music theatre for the youngest audiences..."

"With artistic thoroughness, TITTUT serves up a generously detailed whole, in which color, form, text, performers, puppets and music work beautifully together."

"Leif Hultqvist's music is a marvelous mix of pop, musical hits, jazz, rock, and one ballad in Nasse's own characteristic blend." Svenska Dagbladet

"Especially the music captivates. Nasse is actually a whole little musical, with very varied tunes, where especially one catchy refrain sticks in your head"

Expressen

"Right on target for the little ones! Inventive and innovative, about discovering the world."

"The puppeteers give every one of Nasse's advisers a distinct personality." Dagens Nyheter
